PREFACE

On 12 August 2024, I ended the book 'Just getting on with it now.' Then I felt compelled to catch up with the correspondence:

At 8.14 pm I texted Jill Jesson on WhatsApp: It would be nice if you got well again soon from Sepsis flu.'

At 8.20 pm: I texted her again: 'The next appointment with Consultant Psychiatrist is a telephone one on 4 September.'

Jill Jesson replied at 8.36 pm: 'Off to hospital now for an emergency doctor.'

The Red Ruby Shrimp is a beautiful species with a vivid red body that can add a lively touch to your aquarium. This shrimp is known for its hardy nature and can thrive in a range of water snowball shrimp for sale conditions. The Orange Sakura Rili Shrimp with its bright orange body and translucent markings is another visually appealing option. This shrimp is relatively easy to care for and can add a dynamic element to your tank.

 Sunset kayaking on the Napa River is a magical experience. As the sun sets, the sky is painted with hues of pink orange and purple reflecting off the water's surface. The tranquil evening napa kayak atmosphere and the stunning colors create a perfect end to a day on the river. Sunset paddles are often quieter with fewer people on the water, allowing for a more intimate and peaceful experience.

For those who live in rural areas, wood-burning fireplaces can be a practical and reliable heating source. In regions where firewood is readily available, this type of fireplace can provide a cost-effective alternative to other heating methods. Additionally, the ability to heat a home without relying on external utilities can be particularly valuable in remote areas where power outages are more common. The independence offered by a wood-burning fireplace is one of its key benefits.

: Important according to Google magic. Thank you for contacting the Financial Ombudsman Service, we are a free service set up to resolve disputes with financial businesses, like banks or insurance companies.

We're helping a lot of customers at the moment, so I'm sorry we won't be able to reply straight away.

If you're contacting us about a new complaint

You can find out more about the things we can help with on our website – where you can also use our complaint checker tool to see if your complaint is one we can look at.

If we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days. Due to the volume of enquiries we receive, we are only able to reply to those customers we can help.

If you already have a complaint with us

We'll contact you once your complaint is with a case-handler.

However, if you're experiencing serious financial or health problems, or need to speak to someone urgently, please call us on 0800 023 4567.

If we are not able to help you

We can only look at complaints about financial businesses (like banks, insurance companies and finance firms). We can't help with other complaints – for example, about phone and utility companies, council tax or legal services. Please look at our website for more information about other organisations that may be able to help – but they are completely separate from the Financial Ombudsman Service

And just to remind you again, if we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days.

Thanks,

Financial Ombudsman Service

Thank you for your response.

As you ponder over whether my application for the restoration of the Account deserves a positive outcome, allow me to clarify:

I came to the United Kingdom as a 15 year old from Hindu India and today I feel that I have repaid the United Kingdom State for all the benefits that I have had from being a law-abiding citizen taking advantage of the facilities on offer and contributing to outline a better way of life: <https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/blank> The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom. It is for others to judge my work and take whatever steps they wish to take to either throw the concept of The Conservative Libertarian Society into the dustbin of history or chart a new direction for humanity.

Further, in the interests of minimising the work of the various State institutions considering this matter, I should reiterate that I will not take this complaint any further than I have already done for I do understand the sensitivities involved with a living Monarch. Stripe's decision will be final as far as I am concerned.

Yours sincerely

Dr Shantanu Panigrahi

Hello Members!

TCLP-UK component of our Society relates to the work we do in the United Kingdom which aims for a better way of life for all its inhabitants.

Our Formula for socialisation looks forward to the day that we would live under greater truth, justice and democracy for all of us who live in this country.

We do not subscribe to the notion of the Divine right of Kings and Queens to act with absolute power thereby limiting these three tenets of TCLP-UK's Constitution. We have seen that Absolute power corrupts absolutely. There is consequently tremendous corruption and incoherence in society. We would like to see a form of Cultural Republicanism instead where the Monarch is retained as a Figure-Head only.

Dear Dr Panigrahi

Thank you for your email.

The Commissioner is appointed to investigate allegations of breaches of the Code of Conduct for MPs. The role and powers of the Commissioner are set out in Standing Order No. 150 and he can investigate alleged breaches of the rules of conduct listed in sections D and E. If someone wishes to make an allegation against an MP, the Commissioner will need:

The complainant's full name and postal address (if the Commissioner opens an investigation, he will share with the MP only the name of the person making the allegation. Address details will be redacted in any correspondence with the MP and any eventual publication. The name of a complainant who is a member of the public will normally be redacted from any eventual publication)

A clear explanation detailing how the complainant thinks the MP has breached one of the rules of conduct or rules listed in sections D and E

Any evidence available to support their allegation

Full details about the Commissioner's processes can be read here. You can also find out more general information about our office here or see these frequently asked questions.

1. My complaint against current Members of Parliament Debbie Abrahams, Diane Abbott, Naushubah Khan, Clive Lewis, Zubir Ahmed and Bayo Alaba is that these MPs did not get together to determine who will represent my interests and concerns on truth, justice and democracy in the Society that we live in through a Private Members Bill in the House of Commons to discuss the attached material: The TCLP_UK Component of the Sampradaya.docx.

About the show

In 'Podcast on Purpose,' Philippa Forrester interviews the project owners behind some of the most compelling crowdfunding campaigns. These individuals have faced significant challenges and, through the power of crowdfunding, have made a substantial impact on their communities.

Meet your hosts

Philippa Forrester brings her vast experience from a career spanning three decades in broadcasting, including beloved TV series like 'Robot Wars' and 'Tomorrow's World,' as well as her work as an author and sustainability advocate. Philippa's passion for storytelling and making a difference shines through in every episode.

Philippa is joined by Simon Deverell, Co-CEO of Crowdfunder.co.uk, the UK's leading crowdfunding platform. Simon provides an insider's view on each project's campaign success and the broader implications of crowdfunding in fostering community-driven change. Dear Right Honourable Members of Parliament

1. The Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards is currently in the process of undertaking my complaint assessment against you all as follows:

a. My complaint against current Members of Parliament Debbie Abrahams, Diane Abbott, Naushubah Khan, Clive Lewis, Zubir Ahmed and Bayo Alaba is that these they did not get together to determine who will represent my interests and concerns on truth, justice and democracy in the Society that we live in through a Private Members Bill in the House of Commons to discuss the attached material: The TCLP_UK Component of the Sampradaya.docx.

b. It is morally wrong and democratically-corrupt to have a tax-paying member of the State to be unrepresented in Parliament.

2. The Commissioner for Standards has asked me to detail this through examination of Sections D and E as attached: SECTION D and E_MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT'S CODE OF CONDUCT.docx as follows:11. Members shall never undertake any action which would cause significant damage to the reputation and integrity of the House of Commons as a whole, or of its Members generally.

3. Since I have not received a reply from any of you to the correspondence that I sent showing total lack of cooperation I should be grateful for your replies singularly or if you prefer elect a single MP to speak on all your behalf in addressing the above updated complaint.

Yours sincerely

SECTION D AND E: MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT'S CODE OF CONDUCT

D - Rules of conduct

1. Members must treat their staff and all those visiting or working for or with Parliament with dignity, courtesy and respect.1

2. Members must base their conduct on a consideration of the public interest, avoid conflict between personal interest and the public interest and resolve any conflict between the two, at once, and in favour of the public interest.

3. The acceptance by a Member of a bribe to influence his or her conduct as a Member, including any fee, compensation or reward in connection with the promotion of, or opposition to, any Bill, Motion, or other matter submitted, or intended to be submitted to the House, or to any Committee of the House, is contrary to the law of Parliament.

4. Members must rigorously follow the rules on lobbying set out in the Guide to the Rules.

5. Members must fulfil conscientiously the requirements of the House in respect of the registration of interests in the Register of Members' Financial Interests. New Members must register all their current financial interests, and any registrable benefits (other than 1 Resolution of 19 July 2018 earnings) received in the 12 months before their election within one month of their election, and Members must register any change in those registrable interests within 28 days.

The Guide to the Rules relating to the Conduct of Members⁴

6. Members must always be open and frank in declaring any relevant interest in any proceeding of the House or its Committees, and in any communications with Ministers, Members, public officials or public office holders.

7. Members must only use information which they have received in confidence in the course of their parliamentary activities in connection with those activities, and never for other purposes.

8. Excepting modest and reasonable personal use, Members must ensure that the use of facilities and services provided to them by Parliament, including an office, is in support of their parliamentary activities, and is in accordance with all relevant rules.

9. Members must not provide, or agree to provide, paid parliamentary advice, including undertaking, or agreeing to undertake services as a Parliamentary strategist, adviser or consultant.

10. A Member who is the Chair and Registered Contact of an All-Party Parliamentary Group must ensure that the Group and any secretariat observe the rules set down for such Groups.

11. Members shall never undertake any action which would cause significant damage to the reputation and integrity of the House of Commons as a whole, or of its Members generally.

E – Rules relating to upholding the Code

12. Members must co-operate at all times with the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards in the conduct of any investigation and with the Committee on Standards and the Independent Expert Panel in any subsequent consideration of a case.

13. Members must not disclose details in relation to: (i) any investigation by the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards except when required by law to do so, or authorised by the Commissioner; nor (ii) the proceedings of the Committee on Standards or the Independent Expert Panel in relation to a complaint unless required by law to do so, or authorised by the Committee or the Panel respectively.

14. Members must not lobby a member of the Committee on Standards, the Independent Expert Panel or the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards, or their staff, in a manner calculated or intended to influence their consideration of whether a breach of the Code of Conduct has occurred, or in relation to the imposition of a sanction.

15. Members must not seek to influence, encourage, induce or attempt to induce, a person making a complaint in an investigation to withdraw or amend their complaint, or any witness or other person participating in a complaint to withdraw or alter their evidence.

16. Members must comply with any sanction imposed by the Independent Expert Panel.

5The Guide to the Rules relating to the Conduct of Members

17. Members must comply with a sanction imposed by the Committee on Standards or the House relating to withdrawal of services or facilities from a Member

Hello Members!

TCLP-UK component of our Society relates to the work we do in the United Kingdom which aims for a better way of life for all its inhabitants.

Our Formula for socialisation looks forward to the day that we would live under greater truth, justice and democracy for all of us who live in this country.

We do not subscribe to the notion of the Divine right of Kings and Queens to act with absolute power thereby limiting these three tenets of TCLP-UK's Constitution. We have seen that Absolute power corrupts absolutely. There is consequently tremendous corruption and incoherence in society. We would like to see a form of Cultural Republicanism instead where the Monarch is retained as a Figure-Head only.

Stripe the Banking service providers associated with the JOIN button in our webpage has suspended our Account saying that it is reviewing its decision, as linked here:

We will not compromise on what we believe in for the Founder of the Vishista Advaita Sampradaya has allegiance to God who grants Divine Vision for us to carry out our daily activities.

In the absence of Stripe's support to our Membership Account here in Join it we will exist with donations only. This can be easily done by going to the Donate Link at the top left corner of the web-page.

Thank you for your email - I really appreciate you taking the time to get in touch

Please accept this automatic response as an acknowledgement that your email has been received. To help me assist you quickly, please read this email which outlines the additional information that I may require to help you resolve your case.

What to include

Due to strict Parliamentary protocol, Members of Parliament are only able to act on behalf of their constituents. If you are not sure whether I am your MP, you can find out through the House of Commons information office website: <http://findyourmp.parliament.uk/>. I ask that everyone who emails me provides the following information before I take up their case:

- Full name
- Address
- Contact number
- Email address
- A short summary of your case

Immigration Cases

If your case relates to an immigration case, please provide any Home Office reference numbers or other relevant documents. Please also make sure that you have provided the nationalities, dates of birth and passport numbers of all of those people concerned in the case.

Benefits Cases

If your case relates to benefits, please make sure that you have provided your national insurance number, any reference numbers for tribunals and information on the progress of your case (i.e. have you applied for a mandatory reconsideration, have you appealed the decision of the DWP etc).

Housing Cases

If your case relates to housing, please make sure that you have provided information on who your landlord is, how many people live in your property, your current priority banding and whether or not you receive housing benefit.

Responses

All emails are processed with constituency casework taking priority. I give equal priority to emails, phone calls and letters. I receive a large volume of policy template emails, so please do not be offended if there is a delay in receiving a response. My team must prioritise individual cases.

Best wishes

Dr Zubir Ahmed

My office receives hundreds of emails each day and we do respond as quickly as possible. We aim to respond to casework enquiries within 25 working days.

By emailing and asking for help/advice we assume consent to work on your behalf. If this is not the case you must let us know – you can withdraw your consent at any time – but please note that work on your case will then likely cease once you withdraw. I will undertake casework using the personal information provided by or on behalf of a constituent. It may be necessary for me to share your information with third party organisations. I will only do so where it is necessary and reasonable to do so, and I will share only the minimum amount of personal information necessary in order to advocate on your behalf.

Immigration Cases

If your case relates to an immigration case, please provide any Home Office reference numbers or other relevant documents. Please also make sure that you have provided the nationalities, dates of birth and passport numbers of all those concerned in the case.

Thank you for your email

There is a strict Parliamentary protocol which means MPs can only undertake casework on behalf of their own constituents .As such, please check that you have provided your full postal address including your post code, relevant details about your case and your permission that I may make representations on your behalf if you live in the constituency of Oldham East and Saddleworth.

Your query will be dealt with as soon as possible. Our casework triage system ensures urgent enquiries are prioritised. Although we aim to deal with all enquiries within 20 working days, this year my office has had unprecedented numbers of cases so please bear with us.

My office follows the 2018 General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), details of which can be found on my website. You will be only contacted by my office in relation to your specific enquiry and we will not contact a third party without your expressed permission.

Finally, if you would like to receive my monthly e-newsletter with details of my work in the constituency and Parliament, please reply YES to this email.

Received 10.40am 29 December 2022

Notice of Hearing of Application

In the County Court at Central London
Claim Number	E35YM660
Date	13 December 2022

DR SHANTANU PANIGRAHI	1 st Claimant Ref
MRS THERESA MAY - PRIME MINISTER OF THE UNITED KINGDOM	1 st Defendant Ref Z1819776/MMX/ HO19

The hearing of the claimant's application dated 23.06.2022 will take place at 10:00 AM on the 20 January 2023 at the County Court at Central London, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts Of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL.

Time estimate 1 hour IN PERSON before a Circuit Judge

LISTING POLICY: The court's listing policy is determined by the senior judge and implemented by staff in accordance with his directions. Your case may not be allocated to a judge until the day of the hearing, and may have to wait in the unassigned list until a judge becomes available to hear it. Every effort will be made to ensure that your case is heard at this or another convenient court. If it is not possible to provide a judge to hear your case, the court and Her Majesty's Court and Tribunal Service will not be responsible for any costs incurred in the absence of any departure from listing policy due to maladministration.

Parties should be aware that this case may be one of several cases that have been listed to commence at this time. This may mean that your case will not be called immediately at the time scheduled, but may be heard later in the day. We will try to ensure that if your case is listed in the morning it is heard by 1pm and if your case is listed in the afternoon it is heard by 4pm. In some circumstances it is possible that your hearing could overrun. You and any witnesses should therefore be available until the end of these periods or even later.

If there are special reasons why this is inconvenient you may make a short notice application to a circuit judge to adjourn. Ordinary inconvenience arising from the fact of being in the unassigned list will not be sufficient reason for an adjournment, nor will the fact that both parties agree to an adjournment.

ACCESSIBILITY: Please inform us as soon as possible if you, your witnesses or legal representatives have a physical disability that may affect your attendance at this court. We can make alternative arrangements for the case to be heard in a suitable court room by calling the Customer Service Team on 0300 123 5577.

FILING OF SKELETON ARGUMENTS AND TRIAL BUNDLES: Trial bundles (if applicable) should be lodged no earlier than 3 working days before the trial (unless otherwise ordered). All trial bundles should be

The court office at the County Court at Central London, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts Of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL. When corresponding with the court, please address forms or letters to the Court Manager and quote the claim number. Tel: 0300 123 5577. Check if you can issue your claim online. It will save you time and money. Go to www.moneyclaim.gov.uk to find out more.

clearly marked as being heard by a Circuit Judge. Any bundles delivered by hand can be dropped off at the public counter by obtaining an appointment by ringing the appointment line on 0207 947 7502 indicating that the delivery is for a trial bundle.

Skeleton arguments for this case should be sent by email to CentralLondonCJSKEL@justice.gov.uk. Parties may not send PDF files to this Inbox. Any emails to which PDF files are attached will be deleted without having been opened or read. Furthermore, do not send skeletons by FAX or by any other means unless email is not available in which case explanation must be provided with the document.

Information for people with disabilities visiting the Royal Courts of Justice (RCJ)

At HM Courts & Tribunals Service (HMCTS) we want to provide:

- an experience that works for everyone
- services that people with disabilities can use independently where possible
- services that can be used in a fair way

We know that people with disabilities sometimes need our help and support to use our services. This can mean that we need to provide something different so you can access and use our services in the same way as a person without a disability. We often call this a reasonable adjustment.

What reasonable adjustments can we provide?

We're able to do lots of things that mean that people with disabilities can use our services independently wherever possible and in a way that is fair, for example:

- providing our forms in large print
- providing our guidance in audio or easy read
- making sure hearing enhancement systems are available
- providing a separate waiting area
- making sure ramps and lifts are available.

This list doesn't include everything we can do to help, and we'll always talk to you first about what you need.

If you need help or support in the hearing room, we will also discuss this with the judge hearing your case. Judges are committed to making sure everyone can give their best evidence and everyone has a fair hearing.

How to arrange a reasonable adjustment?

Disabilities affect people differently so we won't always know what will help. If you have a disability that means you can't access our information and services please get in touch with us. You can request help and support as a reasonable adjustment by phone, in person or in writing by:

- emailing RCJ.DCO@justice.gov.uk, or centrallondoncounty.dco@justice.gov.uk
- phoning our Disability Contact Officer 0207 947 6063.

To help us provide the best help and support, you should try to explain how your disability affects you and give as much information as you can. This will help our staff or the judge to consider what you'll need to do during your case and any help we can provide. Our staff will always talk with you and agree any reasonable adjustments you need.

Please note.

Many areas of the RCJ are Grade 1 listed, and this means there may be restrictions to the changes we can make. Some of the areas you will need to access could be a 5 to 10-minute walk from the nearest entrance.

Getting around our building and support before the hearing.

- If you need a parking space (blue badge holders only) please contact the Listing Office by letter, e-mail or phone at least 24 hours before your hearing.
- email: RCJ.DCO@justice.gov.uk or centrallondoncounty.dco@justice.gov.uk
- tel: 0207 947 6063

Please include:

- your case number
- car registration, make, model and colour
- your Blue Badge number and issuing authority.
- Wheelchair access into the RCJ is available at:
 - West Green (9am - 4.30pm), and
 - Bell Yard North (9.30am - 4.30pm).

These entrances and the main entrance have intercoms linked to RCJ Security.

- Step-free access (via ramps, stair lifts and lifts) is available to most areas of the building. A map detailing the best routes for step-free access is available at each entrance and/or upon request.
- Accessible toilets are located throughout the RCJ. Maps are available but please let us know if you need details in advance.
- If you have limited mobility, we have a limited number of manual wheelchairs available for use. You may bring a carer or helper to support you using the wheelchair.
- Support Through Court are a charity supporting people who face court alone so that they can represent themselves to the best of their abilities. You can find out more information on www.supportthroughcourt.org or phoning 020 7947 7701.
- Assistance dogs are welcome in all HMCTS buildings.

The hearing.

For the hearing itself, we can provide:

- breaks in court proceedings. We will ask the judge to consider your request before your hearing begins

- help with reading and writing court forms. Some court documents can be provided in large print or braille <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/court-and-tribunal-forms>.
- hearing enhancement systems in some of our courts (and available at reception and at our public counters). We also have portable hearing loops available on request.

Cases are listed in accordance with local hearing arrangements determined by the Judiciary and implemented by court staff. Every effort is made to ensure that hearings start either at the time specified or as soon as possible thereafter. However, listing practices or other factors may mean that delay is unavoidable. Furthermore, in some instances a case may be released to another judge, possibly at a different court. Please contact the court for further information on the listing arrangements that may apply to your hearing.

Thank you for your response.

As you ponder over whether my application for the restoration of the Account deserves a positive outcome, allow me to clarify:

I came to the United Kingdom as a 15 year old from Hindu India and today I feel that I have repaid the United Kingdom State for all the benefits that I have had from being a law-abiding citizen taking advantage of the facilities on offer and contributing to outline a better way of life: <https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/blank> The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom. It is for others to judge my work and take whatever steps they wish to take to either throw the concept of The Conservative Libertarian Society into the dustbin of history or chart a new direction for humanity.

Further, in the interests of minimising the work of the various State institutions considering this matter, I should reiterate that I will not take this complaint any further than I have already done for I do understand the sensitivities involved with a living Monarch. Stripe's decision will be final as far as I am concerned.

Yours sincerely

 The Circuit Judge
 Central London County Court

Your Honour

More than 6 weeks has gone by and Stripe is apparently still in the process of considering whether to support The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited with its banking services. This delay is unacceptable and a sign that Stripe is looking over its shoulders to see whether Your Honour will guide us with a Judgment in the matter now given that the Parliamentary authorities have not been able to assess the Constitutional legalities implicitly entwined in the progress of the TCLP-UK political party in the United Kingdom as linked here:

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/reference-pcs611-2-private-and-confidential>; <https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/items-for-the-adjourned-hearing-of-20-january-2023-10-am-on-claim-e3yym660-at-the-central-london-cou>.

Your Honour, for a century the saying that 'East is East and West is West and never the Twain will meet.' has been referred to as gospel truth: This saying hangs in the balance now and your decision will determine the reality.

Yours sincerely

THE TWAIN DID NOT MEET

Hindu East and United Kingdom West are the East and the West respectively and these Twain did not meet within in my lifetime at 67 years of age. This morning I was confronted by more deceit, and Satan evil materials in emails this morning all of which I deleted and I am not recording my correspondence any more because it will fall into the wrong hands and can be used against me. I deleted all the emails from Yahoo and Gmail accounts to leave a clear sheet to have peace and quiet. I had texted Jill Jesson who is ill with Sepsis: 'I am praying for you Jill'. She is now the only person I can trust outside my own family. I will employ the process of donations only to my Membership facility for TCLP-UK and have nothing to do with Stripe banking Services.
